

JDCHR Round Tassie Tour - Easter 2009

DAY 19 MONDAY 20TH APRIL

LAUNCESTON TO DEVONPORT

Cloudy skies and after getting Ian's car started again we headed off at 8.45am. We called at Gwindleward a Swiss Village which was just perfect for a quick stop.

We then stopped at Exeter to get information for the Seahorse and Platypus tours. We arrived at Beauty Point and some of us went to see the Seahorses which were only born that day so they were very small to a bit bigger, then on to the Platypus.

We then made our way back to Beaconsfield to go through the mine which was very interesting. We made this our lunch stop. Graeme and I went ahead to Port Sorell then on to Devonport where we walked around for a while then were met by Garry and Rhonda and we got on the line for the ferry.

Is he or is he not ?

We finally boarded around 7.00pm and were met by the rest of the members in the lounge. After having tea and sitting around talking and wandering on the ferry we retired at 9.30pm
